ABOUT COLLEGE

The college was established on June 19, 2018, following the provisions of the Chhattisgarh Government's main budget for 2018-19. It was formally initiated as "Government New College, Mopka" via order number 162/264/A.U.Shi./Yojana/2018 issued by the Commissioner of the Directorate of Higher Education.

The institution is affiliated with Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur. Later, by order of the Chhattisgarh Government Higher Education Department (No. F17-14/2022/38-1, Nava Raipur, Atal Nagar) dated November 14, 2022, the college was renamed to its current title in honor of Late Ramnath Verma.

Since its inception, the college has offered undergraduate programs across three major streams: Arts, Science, and Commerce.

Expansion: On July 4, 2023 (during the 2022-23 session), permission was granted to start the B.Sc. Science stream.
